

Soma is 2! River Dip + Chill

Fews Ford Access, Eno River

Sunday, May 21 ~ 3:30-5:30 pm

@ Piper Cox House, Eno River State Park

Bring: swimsuit, towel, water shoes + floaties if desired, extra water if hot, yourselves ready for R&R

Onsite we'll have: popsicle treats, cold drinks, shade tent, some blankets, some toddler materials / activities

Parking + Walking Directions

1. PARK ENTRANCE

- Put "Piper-Cox House, Eno River State Park" into your maps app
- You may lose reception after arriving via GPS. Pics + steps below:

2. TURN RIGHT → TOWARD PIPER COX HOUSE FOR PARKING

- Take 2nd side road on right
- Park at Piper-Cox House car lot if you can (other lots are a far walk)
- Pin of where to park: goo.gl/maps/nVh9kE2J2QqCsYr3A

3. WALKING TO RIVER

- You'll see this house to right, then an entrance to a gravel path

- You can take the wide gravel path to the right

- Or the foot path to the left (sign for “Fews Ford Canoe Launch”), there are small steps + roots

4. ARRIVING TOGETHER

- There is a wide, sandy riverbank area, + we'll put the shade tent out near the big tree to the left. You can dip, wade, snack, hike, play, rest...
- Pin of where to walk: <https://goo.gl/maps/jFJdpM7HdArdbr5Z6>

Eno River Land Acknowledgement in respect for the Eno, Shakori, Sissipahaw, Occaneechi and other Siouan descent people and nations, including the Occaneechi Band of the Saponi Nation